

I am very much against any change in the Indiana Telephone Privacy law that would allow any unsolicited calls from any commercial organization, even if I would do business directly with that company. It would completely gut the intent of the original ruling that has finally given us some relief from these maddening solicitations. Letters can be trashed without opening but phone calls enter our homes unbidden, wake us up, disturb our meals, fill our answer machines. PLEASE DO NOT ALLOW THIS EXCEPTION.